WEDDING AREAS

At Hemyock, you have the luxury of choosing any open area around the farm for your ceremony, your canapes and your reception. This blank canvas helps you create your dream wedding.

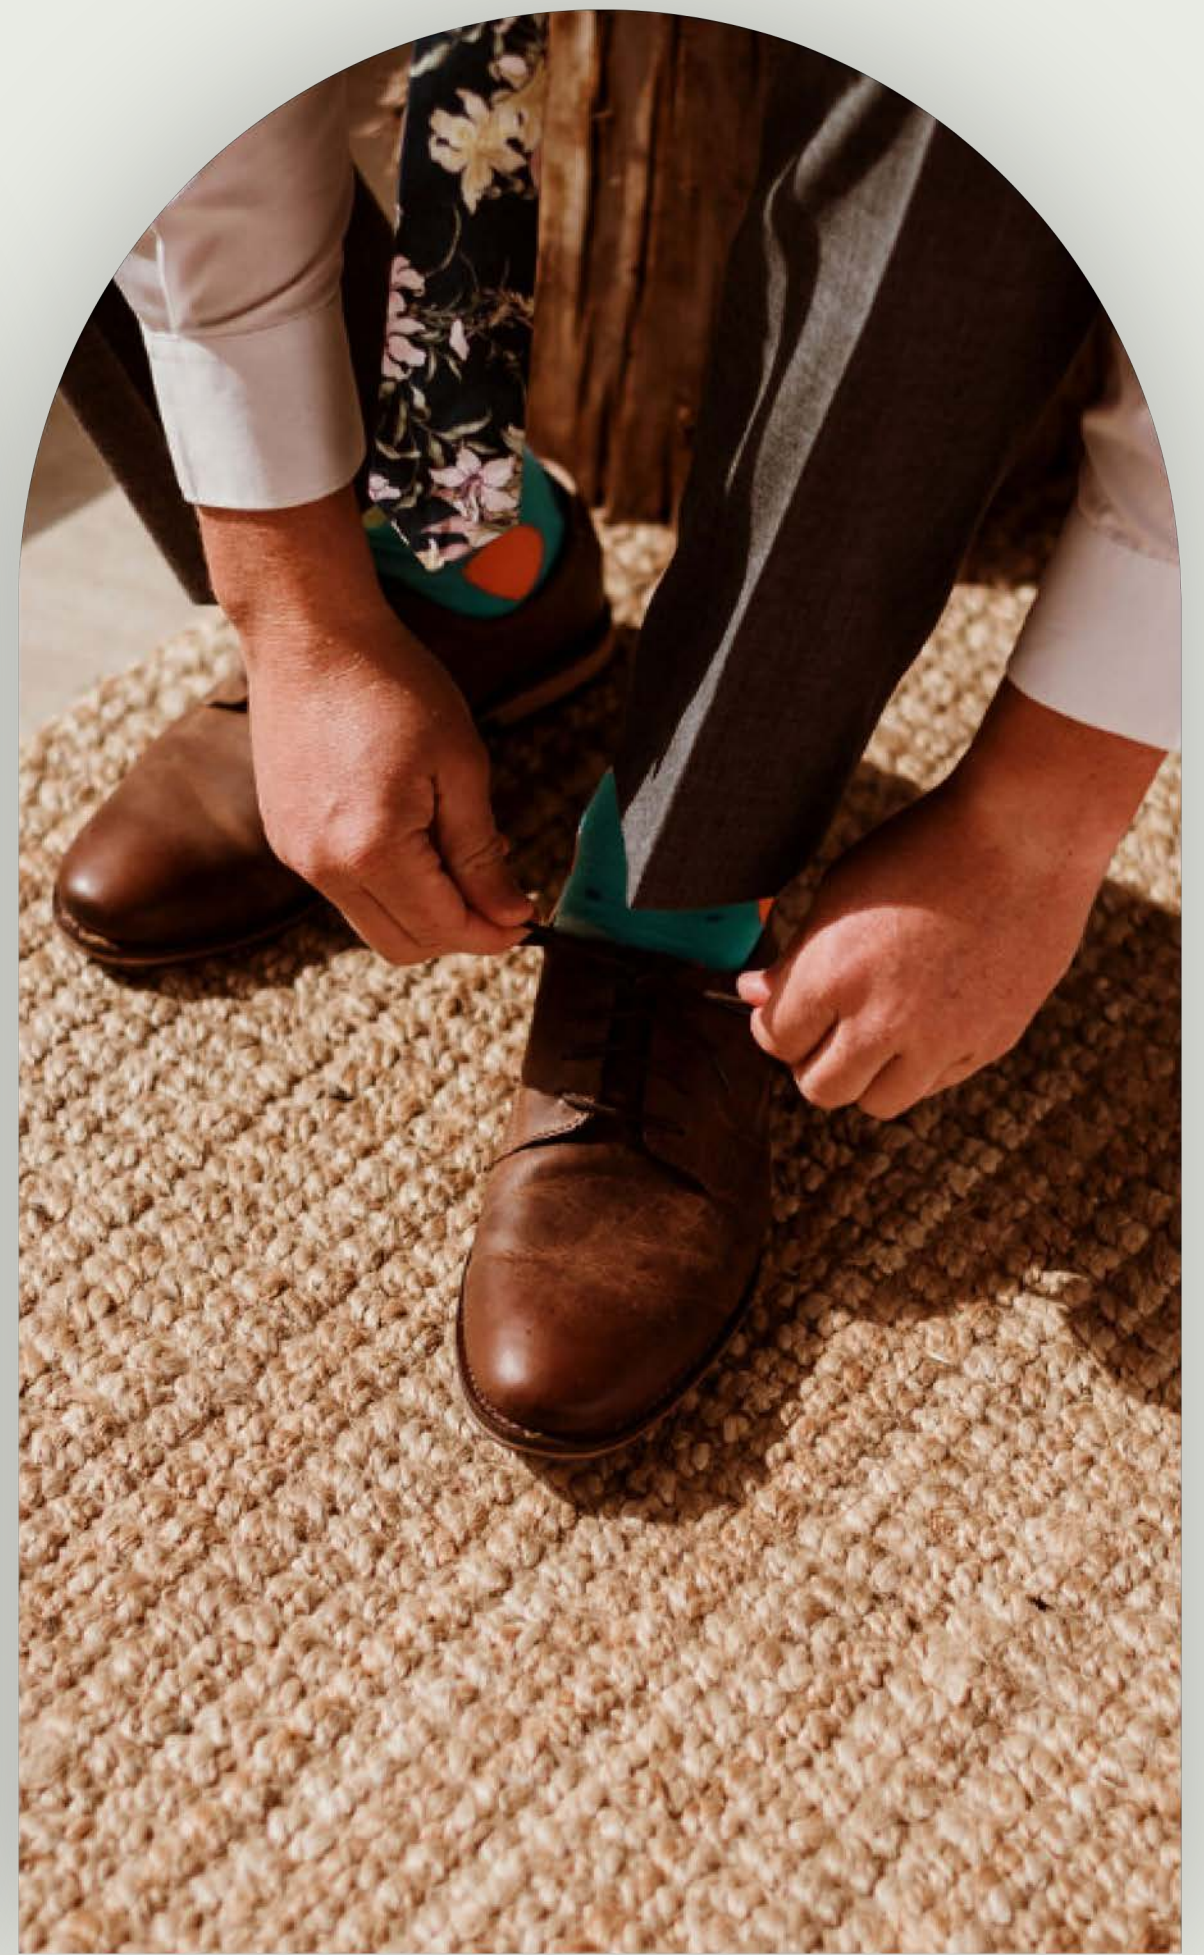

BRIDAL ROOM

Room 7 in the main house is called our Honeymoon Suite. This room has the perfect amount of space, light and style for the bride and her tribe to get ready in.

GROOMS QUARTERS

Whilst the ladies are in the main house the men are in the Moon Cottage away from his bride. The Moon Cottage allows the men to have space to chat, get ready and chill.

WEDDING NIGHT

For the night of your wedding we convert the Moon Cottage from the mens messes to a romantic hideaway. This allows the couple time and space away from everyone to really take in their magical night.

WEATHER

Hemyock Farm takes no responsibility for outdoor events and the client remains responsible for any extra costs or insurance involved should a radical shift in the weather affect the arrangement of the wedding. Deposits or full payments made for the use of Hemyock Farms venue are non-refundable with regards to this.

VENUE RENTAL

The Venue closes at 12pm and an additional surcharge of R1500 for every hour thereafter applies. Guests are welcome to stay on-site until anytime, however, this is subject to curfew.

EVENT

When having an event, one must consider booking a day for your planner to set up prior to your arrival.

The caterers, photographers and set-up staff must be booked accommodation in advance for our site or at Invermooi. This depends if the venue has been fully booked out for the guests (10 rooms are taken).

If there over 30 guests, you will not be able to host the event inside. A tent, décor and kitchen will have to be brought in.

If no decor, furniture, caterers and tents are required then the services of the events planners does not to be booked.

Please confirm details on the numbers of people staying beforehand with the Venue Facilitator. This is for your own sake so that the beds can be separated prior to your stay.
